

Ygnacio Valley Library Winter Break Children's Programs

Winter Math Challenge

December 1 - January 26

Hone your math skills and receive a fun pencil or wristband reward.
Ask library staff for details.

Bilingual Story Time: Mandarin and English

Friday, 12/7, 12/21 & 1/4 at 10:30 a.m.

Fun stories, songs, crafts and stay 'n play.
The presenter's first language is Mandarin, and she comes equipped with teaching experience and a degree in musicology.
For ages 0-6.

All Abilities Play Group

Saturday, 12/15 & 1/26 at 1:00 p.m.

Two speech pathologist moms host this opportunity to ask questions about your child's speech, language or social skills while the kids play. Individualized referral information for community agencies, resources and support groups also available.

For all children ages 0-3. Siblings welcome.
Funded by Walnut Creek Library Foundation

Art Free-For-All

Thursday, December 27

Come any time between 3:00 p.m. and 4:30 p.m.
Create art to keep or share. We'll have a bunch of art supplies on hand and some help with ideas, but you'll bring the most important ingredient, your imagination!
For all ages.

It's Movie Time!

Wednesday, January 2, 10:30 a.m.

Get out of the house. Meet up with friends, or relax with the family at the movies for free.

Back by popular demand, sing in The New Year with The Overdues

Thursday, January 3, 10:30 a.m.

Join the library's very own band, The Overdues
as they shake, rattle, and roll some favorite winter tunes.
All ages are invited to join in the fun and catch the beat.
Funded by Friends of Ygnacio Valley Library.

Picture Book Time

Monday, January 7, 10:15 a.m.

Hey kids! Did you have to give up going to storytime when you started school? Now is your chance to relive your childhood. Come one, come all for this special Winter Break Edition of Picture Book Time!

For special accommodations, please contact the Library with 72 hours notice.
