

FALL PROGRAMS FOR CHILDREN

BUBBLE MAGIC

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 16 @ 4:00

The Walnut Creek Library welcomes bubble sensation Tom Noddy! After an illustrious career on television and presenting to mathematicians and universities, Tom has taken his uniquely warm charm and intellectual interest in soap bubbles to audiences around the world. The bubbles are truly exquisite and Tom's lively humor and engaging sense of fun leave his audiences both delighted and intrigued. No registration required, first 150 people admitted to the Oak View Room.

BALALAIKA DUO RUSSIAN DANCERS

MONDAY, OCTOBER 7 @ 4:00

This culturally exciting show includes singing, dancing, and music. The performance will include an interactive portion where the audience has the opportunity to try some movements of the Russian folk dance Barynya. You might even learn to speak a few Russian words! This program is suited for all ages, no registration required. First 150 people admitted to the Oak View Room.

SPOOKTACULAR! BY FRATELLO MARIONETTES

MONDAY, OCTOBER 28 @ 4:00

Fratello's new Halloween variety show is family-friendly fun for all ages. The show features happy ghosts, Frankenstein, the Purple People Eater, a not-so-scary spider and more....and of course, no Halloween show would be complete without a witch! No registration required at this kid-friendly program, first 150 people admitted to the Oak View Room.

BLOCK PARTY

SEPTEMBER 9. OCTOBER 21. NOVEMBER 18 @ 4:00

Join us for an hour of using your brains to build something new! We'll use all sorts of materials to build all sorts of things. From Lego to Keva Planks to toys that teach you to code, we'll help you create something to be proud of. No registration required; drop-ins welcome. Upstairs in the Oak View Room. Best for ages 4 & up.

CRAFTERNOONS

SEPTEMBER 23. NOVEMBER 25. DECEMBER 23 @ 4:00

A fun and easy craft activity is supplied for elementary school aged kids to make at their leisure. No registration required, drop-ins welcome! While supplies last. Upstairs in the Oak View Room.

LIBRARY SCAVENGER HUNT

SEPTEMBER 3 - 30

Walnut Creek's One City One Book pick is The Library Book by Susan Orlean. Pick up a free copy at the information desk! Kids can also participate in a library scavenger hunt! Grab a scavenger hunt form from an information desk and find a few of our favorite characters hiding around the library. When you're all done, drop the form off with library staff and pick up a prize (while supplies last!). Sponsored by the Walnut Creek Library Foundation.

FAMILY MOVIES

OCTOBER 3 & DECEMBER 5 @ 4:00

Join us for a showing of a family movie. The movies shown are appropriate for all ages. No registration required. Popcorn is provided, please bring your own covered drinks. Held upstairs in the Oak View Room.
