

WALNUT CREEK LIBRARY'S

WINTER EVENTS FOR CHILDREN

SCALY ENCOUNTERS: REPTILES – MON, JAN 13 @ 4:00

Jungle James presents Scaly Encounters! This educational program includes live reptiles! We'll learn the key characteristics of reptiles, their habitats, and what makes them different from other animals.

This program is interactive and provides an opportunity for supervised animal handling.

No registration required, drop-ins welcome. First 150 people admitted to the Oak View Room.

Sponsored by the Walnut Creek Library Foundation.

OCTOPRETZEL MUSIC – MON, FEB 10 @ 4:00

The Walnut Creek Library welcomes Melita Silberstein of Octopretzel to play some whimsical, inspiring, and magical music perfect for children, young and old and for their families, too! Silberstein is a founding member of Octopretzel and focuses on making music accessible and fun for everyone.

No registration required, drop-ins welcome. First 150 people admitted to the Oak View Room.

Sponsored by the Walnut Creek Library Foundation.

BLOCK PARTY – DEC 16, JAN 6, FEB 3 @ 4:00

Join us for an hour of using your brains to build something new! We'll use all sorts of materials to build all sorts of things. From Lego to Keva Planks to toys that teach you to code, we'll help you create something to be proud of. No registration required; drop-ins welcome. Upstairs in the Oak View Room. Best for ages 4 & up.

CRAFTERNOONS – DEC 23, JAN 27, FEB 24 @ 4:00

A fun and easy craft activity is supplied for elementary school aged kids to make at their leisure. No registration required, drop-ins welcome! While supplies last. Upstairs in the Oak View Room.

FAMILY MOVIE – THURS, FEB 6 @ 4:00

Join us for a showing of a family movie. The movies shown are appropriate for all ages. No registration required. Popcorn is provided, please bring your own covered drinks. Held upstairs in the Oak View Room. For more information, check ccclib.org.
